

ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY AGREEMENT

February 16, 2022

Room To Speak, PLLC (Room To Speak) values its users' privacy. This Privacy Policy ("Policy") will help you understand how we collect and use personal information from those who visit our website or make use of our online facilities and services, and what we will and will not do with the information we collect. Our Policy has been designed and created to ensure those affiliated with Room To Speak, PLLC of our commitment and realization of our obligation not only to meet, but to exceed, most existing privacy standards.

We reserve the right to make changes to this Policy at any given time. If you want to make sure that you are up to date with the latest changes, we advise you to frequently visit this page. If at any point in time Room To Speak PLLC decides to make use of any personally identifiable information on file, in a manner vastly different from that which was stated when this information was initially collected, the user or users shall be promptly notified by email. Users at that time shall have the option as to whether to permit the use of their information in this separate manner.

This Policy applies to Room To Speak, PLLC, and it governs any and all data collection and usage by us. Through the use of roomtospeak.thinkific.com, you are therefore consenting to the data collection procedures expressed in this Policy.

Please note that this Policy does not govern the collection and use of information by companies that Room To Speak, PLLC does not control, nor by individuals not employed or managed by us. If you visit a website that we mention or link to, be sure to review its privacy policy before providing the site with information. It is highly recommended and suggested that you review the privacy policies and statements of any website you choose to use or frequent to better understand the way in which websites garner, make use of and share the information collected.

Specifically, this Policy will inform you of the following

1. Who we are
2. What personally identifiable information is collected from you through our website;
3. Why we collect personally identifiable information and the legal basis for such collection;
4. How we use the collected information and with whom it may be shared;

5. What choices are available to you regarding the use of your data; and
6. The security procedures in place to protect the misuse of your information.

Who we are

Room To Speak, PLLC collects, uses and is responsible for certain personal information about you.

Information We Collect

It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you elect not to do so, we reserve the right not to register you as a user or provide you with any products or services. This website collects various types of information, such as:

- Voluntarily provided information which may include your name, address, email address, billing and/or credit card information etc. which may be used when you purchase products and/or services and to deliver the services you have requested.
- Information automatically collected when visiting our website, which may include cookies, third party tracking technologies and server logs.

In addition, Room To Speak, PLLC may have the occasion to collect non-personal anonymous demographic information, such as age, gender, household income, political affiliation, race and religion, as well as the type of browser you are using, IP address, or type of operating system, which will assist us in providing and maintaining superior quality service. You are not required to provide any personally identifiable information to merely access or visit this website.

Room To Speak, PLLC may also deem it necessary, from time to time, to follow websites that our users may frequent to glean what types of services and products may be the most popular to customers or the general public.

Please rest assured that this site will only collect personal information that you knowingly and willingly provide to us by way of surveys, completed membership forms, and emails. It is the intent of this site to use personal information only for the purpose for which it was requested, and any additional uses specifically provided for on this Policy.

Please note that if you are located in the European Economic Area, we are regulated under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The GDPR applies across the European Union (including the United Kingdom) and we are responsible as controllers of that personal information for the purposes of those laws.

Why We Collect Information and For How Long

We are collecting your data for several reasons:

- To better understand your needs and provide you with the services you have requested;
- To fulfill our legitimate interest in improving our services and products;
- To send you promotional emails containing information we think you may like when we have your consent to do so;
- To contact you to fill out surveys or participate in other types of market research, when we have your consent to do so;
- To customize our website according to your online behavior and personal preferences.

The data we collect from you will be stored for no longer than necessary. The length of time we retain said information will be determined based upon the following criteria: the length of time your personal information remains relevant; the length of time it is reasonable to keep records to demonstrate that we have fulfilled our duties and obligations; any limitation periods within which claims might be made; any retention periods prescribed by law or recommended by regulators, professional bodies or associations; the type of contract we have with you, the existence of your consent, and our legitimate interest in keeping such information as stated in this Policy.

Use of Information Collected

Room To Speak, PLLC does not now, nor will it in the future, sell, rent or lease any of its customer lists and/or names to any third parties.

Room To Speak, PLLC may collect and may make use of personal information to assist in the operation of our website and to ensure delivery of the services you need and request. At times, we may find it necessary to use personally identifiable information as a means to keep you informed of other possible products and/or services that may be available to you from roomtospeak.thinkific.com

Room To Speak, PLLC may also be in contact with you with regards to completing surveys and/or research questionnaires related to your opinion of current or potential future services that may be offered.

Disclosure of Information

Room To Speak, PLLC may not use or disclose the information provided by you except under the following circumstances:

- as necessary to provide services or products you have ordered;
- in other ways described in this Policy or to which you have otherwise consented;
- in the aggregate with other information in such a way so that your identity cannot reasonably be determined;
- as required by law, or in response to a subpoena or search warrant;
- to outside auditors who have agreed to keep the information confidential;
- as necessary to enforce the Terms of Service;

- as necessary to maintain, safeguard and preserve all the rights and property of Room To Speak, PLLC.

Non-Marketing Purposes

Room To Speak, PLLC greatly respects your privacy. We do maintain and reserve the right to contact you if needed for non-marketing purposes (such as bug alerts, security breaches, account issues, and/or changes in Room To Speak, PLLC products and services). In certain circumstances, we may use our website, newspapers, or other public means to post a notice.

Children under the age of 13

Room To Speak, PLLC's website is not directed to, and does not knowingly collect personal identifiable information from, children under the age of thirteen (13). If it is determined that such information has been inadvertently collected on anyone under the age of thirteen (13), we shall immediately take the necessary steps to ensure that such information is deleted from our system's database, or in the alternative, that verifiable parental consent is obtained for the use and storage of such information. Anyone under the age of thirteen (13) must seek and obtain parent or guardian permission to use this website.

Unsubscribe or Opt-Out

All users and visitors to our website have the option to discontinue receiving communications from us by way of email or newsletters. To discontinue or unsubscribe from our website please send an email that you wish to unsubscribe to training@roomtospeak.com. If you wish to unsubscribe or opt-out from any third-party websites, you must go to that specific website to unsubscribe or opt-out. Room To Speak, PLLC will continue to adhere to this Policy with respect to any personal information previously collected.

Links to Other Websites

Our website does contain links to affiliate and other websites. Room To Speak, PLLC does not claim nor accept responsibility for any privacy policies, practices and/or procedures of other such websites. Therefore, we encourage all users and visitors to be aware when they leave our website and to read the privacy statements of every website that collects personally identifiable information. This Privacy Policy Agreement applies only and solely to the information collected by our website.

Notice to European Union Users

Room To Speak, PLLC's operations are located primarily in the United States. If you provide information to us, the information will be transferred out of the European Union (EU) and sent to the United States. The data protection laws in the United Kingdom and EEA are not the same as those of the United States. (The adequacy decision on the EU-US Privacy became operational on August 1, 2016. This framework protects the fundamental rights of anyone in the EU whose personal data is transferred to the United States for commercial purposes. It allows the free transfer of data to companies that are certified in the US under the Privacy Shield.) By providing personal information to us, you are consenting to its storage and use as described in this Policy.

Though the European Commission has not given a decision that the US provide similar data protection as those that apply in the UK or EEA, any transfer of your information will be subject to the derogation in Article 49 permitting non-repetitive transfers that concern only a limited number of data subjects, as permitted by Article 49 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) that is designed to help safeguard your privacy rights.

Your Rights

In summary, those rights include:

- Fair processing of information, transparency and to be informed over how your personal information is being used.
- The right to access your personal information that we hold about you.
- The right to request us to make corrections in any inaccuracies in your information which we hold.
- The right to require the erasure of personal information concerning you in certain situations.
- The right to receive the personal information concerning you which you have provided to us, in a structured and readable format.
- The right to object at any time to processing of personal information concerning you.
- The right to object to decisions being taken by automated means which produce legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you.
- The right to object in certain situations to continued processing of your personal information.
- The right to restrict our processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

For further information on each of those rights under the GDPR you can view: <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/> .

You may also have the right to claim compensation for damages caused by our breach of any data protection laws.

How You Can Exercise Your Rights

If you would like to exercise any of those rights, please:

Email, call, or write to us. Please provide us enough information to identify you (such as your first and last name, your account number, username, registration details), provide us proof of your identity and address (a copy of your driver's license or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill) and provide us with the information regarding the matter to which your request relates.

Security

Room To Speak, PLLC takes precautions to protect your information. We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorized way. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline. Wherever we collect sensitive information (e.g. credit card information), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the webpage. While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers and servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment. This is all done to prevent any loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure or modification of the user's personal information under our control. The company also uses Secure Socket Layer (SSL) for authentication and private communications to build users' trust and confidence in the internet and website use by providing simple and secure access and communication of credit card and personal information.

Please note that any comments or information that you post on the website, including social media pages, become public and third parties may use your information. Room To Speak, PLLC is not responsible for any unauthorized uses by third parties in such context. You disclose and release such information at your own risk.

Acceptance of Terms

By using this website, you are hereby accepting the terms and conditions stipulated within the Privacy Policy Agreement. If you are not in agreement with our terms and conditions, then you should refrain from further use of our sites. In addition, your continued use of our website following the posting of any updates or changes to our terms and conditions shall mean that you agree and accept such changes.
